

EDUCONNECT

STUDENT NEWSLETTER

Graduate Students:

Research Symposium: Got research on your mind? Don't miss the COE Graduate Research Symposium on February 6, 2025! You can choose to present your research ideas and receive valuable feedback; proposal submissions are due December 1, 2024. If you just want to check out the event and get inspired, that works too! We've got all the details and a helpful FAQ for you here.

Registration Tip: If your registration screen looks off or you're running into issues, clearing your browser history and cookies may do the trick. A system error is being worked on, but it wasn't quite fixed in time for Spring 2025 registration. If the issue persists, feel free to contact our Division of Information Technology here.

Did You Know?

We host monthly student sessions – Cookies and Conversation. We will be featuring a variety of monthly topics and sharing resources for our students. This month we will tour the SC Normal School Exhibit. We encourage all students to come out and enjoy this fellowship along with sweet treats.

WHERE: College of Education Museum

WHEN: November 14th @ 3:00pm-4:00pm

Please RSVP with this link:

<https://forms.office.com/r/FpsyMwnKVx>

Undergraduate Students:

It's course registration week, so brace yourself—it's time to set up your dream schedule for next semester! While you're planning, consider adding UNIV 201—the ultimate 1-credit course for second- and third-year students navigating their way through the college jungle. UNIV 201 offers targeted guidance to boost your career readiness and give you the inside scoop on the field of education. Sections 014 (Teaching Fellows) and 015 are exclusively for Education majors. Add it to your schedule and get set for the next exciting chapter of your college adventure. Good luck with registration!

As Thanksgiving approaches, let's take a moment to be grateful not only for the teachers and mentors who've guided us, but also for the journey you're on to become a teacher yourself. Your future students will thank you for the knowledge, encouragement, and energy you bring to their lives. Happy Thanksgiving!

Exciting Opportunity for Students-Housing Innovation: Children's Edition Summit

On behalf of the Institute for Child Success, we are excited to share an opportunity for your students interested in housing innovation! On Friday, November 15, from 10 AM to 3 PM, we invite you to the Housing Innovation: Children's Edition summit at the Cooperative Conference Center, 169 Laurelhurst Avenue, Columbia, SC.

This one-day event focuses on presenting the housing crisis as a children's issue and brings together a diverse range of community members to explore creative solutions that benefit families and our economy. Our summit will gather stakeholders from various sectors, including nonprofits, businesses, government agencies, and community advocates/students. Together, we aim to explore innovative ideas and collaborative solutions to ensure safe and affordable housing for young children and families.

We believe your students will greatly benefit from the networking opportunities and the chance to engage with industry leaders, gaining valuable insights into how they can advocate for meaningful change in housing for children and families.

We encourage you to share this event with your students, as scholarships are available for their participation. Attached is a flyer with more details for your convenience.

Please find the links for the scholarship application Google form and Eventbrite registration form.

Stop by Gamecock EdQuarters (Wardlaw 113) or email coestudy@mailbox.sc.edu with any questions!